

TRAY-TRIP

Meaning: Tray-trip: a balanced arrangement of items, typically carried on a tray or similar surface, often used in the context of serving food or transporting multiple objects.

1. The waiter deftly navigated the crowded restaurant with a tray-trip of appetizers.
2. She balanced her stack of textbooks on a tray-trip as she rushed to class.
3. A tray-trip of colorful desserts caught the attention of every guest at the party.
4. During the catering event, the staff practiced their tray-trip skills to ensure everything went smoothly.
5. He almost lost his balance during the tray-trip, but managed to keep all the drinks upright.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tray-trip>