

TREAD

Meaning: TREAD: to walk or step on or along a surface with care or caution.

1. She tried to tread lightly on the snow so as not to disturb the peaceful silence.
2. The hikers were advised to tread carefully along the narrow mountain path.
3. His heart felt heavy as he treaded down the familiar streets of his childhood.
4. They vowed to tread the path of honesty and integrity in their business dealings.
5. As the storm approached, she decided to tread back home before it got worse.
6. She had to tread carefully on the icy sidewalk to avoid falling.
7. The soldiers were instructed to tread lightly in enemy territory to avoid detection.
8. As the hikers began to tread through the dense forest, they marveled at the towering trees.
9. He would often tread on my dreams with his harsh criticism, stifling my confidence.
10. The children were excited to tread in the shallow water at the beach, laughing as the waves lapped at their feet.
11. She tried to tread lightly on the uneven ground to avoid tripping.
12. As they walked through the forest, they made sure to tread carefully to protect the delicate ecosystem.
13. His advice was to tread softly in sensitive conversations to avoid causing offense.
14. The hikers learned to tread the narrow path with caution, as the cliffs dropped steeply on either side.
15. In the dance, every step required them to tread with grace and precision to match the rhythm of the music.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tread>