

TREADBOARD

Meaning: TREADBOARD: A flat board or step in a staircase or flooring designed to be walked on, often used for safety and stability.

1. The treadboard in the old wooden staircase creaked underfoot as she ascended.
2. During the construction of the new gym, the workers installed a durable treadboard for safety.
3. He carefully placed his foot on the treadboard, ensuring he had a stable grip before continuing.
4. The treadboard was designed to withstand heavy traffic, making it perfect for the busy entrance.
5. After years of use, the treadboard showed signs of wear, prompting the need for replacement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/treadboard>