

TREASONABLENESS

Meaning: Treasonableness refers to the quality or state of being traitorous or disloyal, particularly in actions that betray one's country or allegiance.

1. The treasonableness of his actions shocked everyone who had once considered him a loyal friend.
2. In times of war, the treasonableness of dissent can undermine national security and morale.
3. Legal experts debated the treasonableness of the defendant's conduct during the investigation.
4. The politician was accused of treasonableness for leaking classified information to foreign agents.
5. Historical accounts often highlight the treasonableness of those who betrayed their country for personal gain.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/treasonableness>