

TREASURE-TROVE

Meaning: Treasure-trove: a collection of valuable or interesting items, often discovered unexpectedly.

1. The old attic turned out to be a treasure-trove of forgotten family memorabilia.
2. During the excavation, archaeologists uncovered a treasure-trove of ancient artifacts buried beneath the ground.
3. Her grandmother's trunk was a treasure-trove of vintage clothing and jewelry from decades past.
4. The library was a treasure-trove of knowledge, filled with rare books and manuscripts waiting to be discovered.
5. He considered the collection of rare coins in his basement a personal treasure-trove that he hoped to one day share with his children.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/treasure-trove>