

TREBLENESS

Meaning: Trebleness refers to the quality or state of having a high, bright, and resonant sound, particularly in musical harmonies.

1. The trebleness of the choir's harmonies filled the cathedral with a divine resonance.
2. In the world of music, trebleness often evokes feelings of joy and elation.
3. Her voice had a trebleness that cut through the noise of the bustling café.
4. The trebleness in the violin's notes soared above the rest of the orchestra, captivating the audience.
5. He admired the trebleness of her laughter, which was infectious and lighthearted.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trebleness>