

TREBLY

Meaning: Trebly: characterized by a high, bright, and resonant quality, often producing a lively or vibrant sound.

1. The music's rhythm was trebly, filling the room with a vibrant energy.
2. Her laughter was trebly echoing through the halls, bringing joy to everyone around.
3. The speaker's voice became trebly as he emphasized the importance of his message.
4. The guitar produced a trebly sound that cut through the band's heavy instrumentation.
5. In the treble clef, the notes danced with a trebly clarity that delighted the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trebly>