

TREELESS

Meaning: Treeless: lacking trees; characterized by an absence of tree cover in a landscape or environment.

1. The landscape appeared stark and desolate, with a treeless expanse stretching as far as the eye could see.
2. In the treeless regions of the Arctic, life adapts in surprising ways to survive the harsh conditions.
3. After the wildfire swept through, the once lush forest was left treeless and barren.
4. The hikers trudged through the treeless valley, feeling the full force of the sun beating down on them.
5. Ecologists are concerned about the impact of treeless areas on local wildlife and biodiversity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/treeless>