

TREENAIL

Meaning: TREENAIL: A wooden peg or dowel used to fasten planks together in shipbuilding.

1. The shipwright carefully selected the perfect treenails for the hull construction.
2. Using treenails made from oak, the craftsmen ensured the boat's durability against rough seas.
3. In traditional shipbuilding, treenails are often preferred for their ability to expand when wet.
4. The old wooden vessel still held together well, thanks to the sturdy treenails that had withstood the test of time.
5. As he restored the antique boat, he replaced the rusted metal fasteners with authentic treenails for historical accuracy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/treenail>