

TREMBLER

Meaning: Trembler: a device or object that shakes or vibrates, often producing a rattling sound, or a structure that oscillates during seismic activity.

1. The trembler in the basement rattled the old pipes with a constant, unsettling noise.
2. As the earthquake struck, it felt as if the entire building was a trembler, oscillating beneath our feet.
3. The artist captured the essence of a trembler, portraying the anxiety of a world on the brink of change.
4. In the midst of the storm, the trees acted as natural tremblers, swaying violently in the wind.
5. Her voice was a trembler, quivering with emotion as she recounted her heartfelt story.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trembler>