

TREMULOUS

Meaning: TREMULOUS: characterized by trembling or quivering, often due to nervousness or emotional intensity.

1. The tremulous voice of the singer captured the audience's attention, evoking deep emotions.
2. As she approached the podium, her tremulous hands betrayed her nervousness.
3. He gave a tremulous smile, unsure of how his confession would be received.
4. The tremulous leaves rustled gently in the cool evening breeze.
5. After the sudden news, a tremulous laugh escaped her lips, masking her true feelings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tremulous>