

TRENAIL

Meaning: Trenail: a wooden peg or dowel used to fasten together wooden parts, especially in construction and shipbuilding.

1. The carpenter skillfully used a trenail to secure the wooden beams together.
2. In traditional shipbuilding, trenails were often made from oak to ensure durability.
3. The old dock was lined with boats held together by trenails, showcasing artisanal craftsmanship.
4. During the restoration project, the team decided to replace the rotting trenails with new ones.
5. Understanding the historical significance of trenails added depth to their research on maritime construction.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trenail>