

TRENCH

Meaning: A trench is a long, narrow excavation in the ground, typically used for protection or to facilitate drainage or irrigation.

1. The soldiers dug a deep trench to protect themselves from enemy fire.
2. The gardener carefully marked out a trench for the new irrigation system.
3. Heavy rain caused the river to overflow, creating a dangerous trench in the nearby field.
4. During the excavation, they discovered an ancient trench used for defense in battle.
5. He felt a sense of unease as he stood at the edge of the trench, gazing into its depths.
6. The soldiers took cover in the trench as the enemy fire rained down.
7. After hours of digging, they finally reached the bottom of the trench.
8. The engineer designed a trench system to effectively manage water runoff.
9. During the storm, the trench filled with water, creating a dangerous situation.
10. Archaeologists discovered ancient artifacts buried deep within the trench.
11. The soldiers dug a deep trench for protection during the battle.
12. As the rain poured down, the trench filled with water, creating a hazardous situation.
13. Geologists often study the oceanic trench to understand tectonic plate movements.
14. The construction crew worked tirelessly to widen the trench for the new sewer line.
15. He felt a sense of accomplishment after successfully clearing out the old trench in his backyard.