

TRENCHER

Meaning: A trencher is a flat, typically wooden dish or board used for serving food, especially in historical contexts.

1. The chef served the hearty stew in a rustic wooden trencher.
2. During the medieval feast, each guest was given a trencher to hold their meal.
3. The family gathered around the table, each with a clay trencher filled with bread.
4. He admired the intricate carvings on the antique trencher displayed on the wall.
5. At the reenactment, they used a traditional trencher instead of modern plates.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trencher>