

TRENNEL

Meaning: A trennel is a wooden peg or dowel used to secure or join parts of a structure, often found in traditional carpentry.

1. The old trennel, crafted from sturdy oak, had withstood the test of time.
2. As we hiked through the forest, we stumbled upon a trennel that had long been forgotten.
3. The fishermen relied on the trennel to secure their nets during the rough seas.
4. In the quaint village, the trennel served as a reminder of the ancient methods of construction.
5. After weeks of labor, the artisan finally completed the trennel, showcasing his intricate skills.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trennel>