

TREPIDATION

Meaning: Trepidation refers to a feeling of fear or anxiety about something that may happen.

1. As she stepped onto the stage, a wave of trepidation washed over her.
2. Despite his trepidation about the upcoming exam, he studied diligently every night.
3. The trepidation in her voice was evident as she discussed the potential changes at work.
4. They approached the haunted house with a mix of excitement and trepidation.
5. His heart raced with trepidation as he awaited the results of the competition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trepidation>