

TREPIDITY

Meaning: Trepidation; a state of fear or anxiety about something that may happen.

1. Her trepidity was evident as she approached the stage for her first public speech.
2. Despite his trepidity, he decided to take the plunge and go skydiving with his friends.
3. The trepidity felt by the team before the big game was palpable in the locker room.
4. She tried to mask her trepidity with a confident smile, but her trembling hands betrayed her.
5. His trepidity about the new job interview quickly faded as he began to share his ideas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trepidity>