TREY

Meaning: Trey (noun): A basketball shot made from beyond the three-point line, worth three points.

1. He sank a trey from the corner to seal the game.
2. The basketball player was known for his incredible ability to hit a trey under pressure.
3. During the match, she scored three consecutive treys, much to the crowd's delight.
4. The coach emphasized the importance of defending against treys in their next game.
5. With just seconds left on the clock, he launched a trey that brought the team within one point.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trey