

TRIAL

Meaning: A trial is a systematic experiment or test conducted to evaluate the effectiveness or performance of something, such as a drug or intervention.

1. The scientist conducted a trial to test the effectiveness of the new drug.
2. After months of preparation, the team finally began their trial in the local community.
3. The defendant's trial was delayed due to the absence of key witnesses.
4. She felt a surge of anxiety as she approached the final trial of the competition.
5. The software underwent a trial period before the official release to the public.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trial>