

TRIBALISM

Meaning: Tribalism is a social phenomenon characterized by strong loyalty to a particular group or community, often resulting in division and conflict with those outside the group.

1. Tribalism can create a strong sense of belonging among community members.
2. The rise of tribalism in modern politics often leads to division and conflict.
3. In some cultures, tribalism is celebrated as a way to preserve traditions and identity.
4. The dangers of tribalism are evident when it fosters intolerance towards outsiders.
5. Efforts to combat tribalism can promote unity and understanding across diverse groups.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tribalism>