

TRIBUNESHIP

Meaning: Tribunership refers to the office or position of a tribune, typically associated with representing and advocating for the interests of a specific group or constituency in a governing body.

1. The council debated the qualifications required for the tribuneship in their latest session.
2. Holding the tribuneship gave her a unique platform to voice the concerns of her constituents.
3. His ascension to the tribuneship was seen as a turning point in local politics.
4. The responsibilities of the tribuneship included both legislative and judicial functions.
5. After years of dedicated service, he was proud to attain the prestigious title of tribune.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tribuneship>