

TRICKER

Meaning: Tricker (noun): a person who employs cunning or deceitful tactics to achieve a goal or entertain, often through tricks or illusions.

1. The magician was known as a master trickster, always surprising audiences with his clever trickeries.
2. In the game, the tricker used deception to outsmart his opponents and claim victory.
3. She felt like a tricker, having successfully pulled off a prank that left her friends in stitches.
4. The clever child was dubbed the tricker of the group, always finding new ways to play harmless jokes.
5. His reputation as a tricker made people wary of his intentions, even when he meant no harm.
6. The magician was known as a master tricker, captivating audiences with his illusions.
7. She felt like a tricker when she successfully pulled off the surprise party without anyone suspecting.
8. His clever use of language made him a skilled tricker in debates, often leaving opponents baffled.
9. The children giggled as the tricker performed playful pranks during the school assembly.
10. Despite his reputation as a tricker, he was always fair and ensured everyone enjoyed the game.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tricker>