

TRICKLE

Meaning: Trickle: to flow or fall in a small, slow, or irregular stream.

1. Water began to trickle down the mountainside after the heavy rainfall.
2. She watched the sunlight trickle through the leaves of the old oak tree.
3. A slow trickle of customers entered the shop as the sale began.
4. Tears started to trickle down his cheeks during the emotional scene in the movie.
5. The honey would trickle slowly from the jar if tipped at just the right angle.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trickle>