

TRIFLING

Meaning: Trifling: of little value or importance; insignificant.

1. Her concerns about the minor details seemed trifling compared to the larger issues at hand.
2. The amount of money he spent on the trinket was trifling, yet it brought him immense joy.
3. They dismissed the argument as trifling, believing it was not worth their time and energy.
4. In the grand scheme of things, his complaints about the service felt trifling and unimportant.
5. She realized that focusing on trifling matters hindered her ability to see the bigger picture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trifling>