

TRILITHON

Meaning: A trilithon is a structure consisting of two large upright stones supporting a horizontal stone, often used in ancient monuments for ceremonial or astronomical purposes.

1. The ancient monument featured a massive trilithon that captivated archaeologists and tourists alike.
2. Experts believe the trilithon was used for astronomical observations during solstices.
3. The construction of the trilithon required advanced engineering skills for its time.
4. Visitors marveled at the sheer size of the trilithon as they explored the historical site.
5. Some theories suggest that the trilithon held significant spiritual meaning for the early inhabitants.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trilithon>