

TRILL

Meaning: Trill: a series of rapid, alternating sounds or notes, often produced by a bird or musical instrument, creating a melodious effect.

1. The bird emitted a sweet trill that echoed through the forest.
2. She played a trill on the flute that captivated everyone in the room.
3. As the wind rustled the leaves, it created a soft trill that danced in the air.
4. The musician incorporated a trill into the piece, adding a touch of elegance.
5. His laughter had a light trill, making it infectious and hard to resist.
6. The flute produced a beautiful trill that resonated throughout the hall.
7. As the bird sang, its sweet trill filled the morning air with a joyful melody.
8. She performed a dazzling trill at the end of her piano piece, leaving the audience in awe.
9. The musician practiced the rapid trill repeatedly to perfect his technique.
10. With a quick trill of her fingers, she signaled for everyone to gather around.
11. The bird's trill filled the morning air, creating a cheerful melody.
12. She played a trill on the piano that beautifully showcased her skill.
13. The excitement in the crowd reached a peak as the trumpet player began to trill.
14. His laughter had a trill to it that made everyone around him smile.
15. As the wind rustled through the leaves, it produced a soft trill that was almost musical.
16. The flute produced a beautiful trill that echoed through the concert hall.
17. As she practiced her scales, her fingers danced over the keys, creating a delightful trill.
18. The bird's morning song was punctuated by a series of joyful trills that filled the garden.
19. With a swift movement, he added a trill to the end of the melody, showcasing his skill.
20. Her laughter had a musical quality, often ending in a playful trill that made everyone smile.
21. The bird's song was a beautiful trill that echoed through the trees.
22. She let out a delighted trill of laughter when she heard the good news.

23. As the flute played, it produced a soft trill that captivated the audience.
24. The excitement in the room reached a trill as the surprise guest arrived.
25. He practiced the trill on his violin until it sounded perfectly smooth.

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trill>*