

TRILLION

Meaning: Trillion (noun): a numerical value equal to one million million (1,000,000,000,000 or 10^{12}), often used to quantify large amounts of money or quantities in scientific contexts.

1. The national debt has now surpassed twenty trillion dollars, raising concerns among economists.
2. A trillion stars are estimated to exist in our galaxy alone, each with its own unique properties.
3. Investing in renewable energy could save the economy trillions over the next few decades.
4. The company's valuation reached a trillion, making it one of the most valuable in the tech industry.
5. In the grand scheme of the universe, a trillion years is just a blink of an eye.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trillion>