

TRILOBITIC

Meaning: Trilobitic refers to characteristics or features related to trilobites, an extinct group of marine arthropods known for their segmented bodies and distinctive fossilized remains from the Paleozoic era.

1. The trilobitic fossils found in the sedimentary rock layers indicated a vibrant ecosystem from the Paleozoic era.
2. Scientists were fascinated by the trilobitic anatomy, which showcased a unique segmentation and compound eyes.
3. During the museum tour, the exhibit featuring trilobitic specimens captured the attention of many paleontology enthusiasts.
4. Trilobitic species are considered essential for understanding the evolutionary history of marine arthropods.
5. The distinct features of trilobitic shells allowed researchers to classify them into various taxa based on their morphology.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trilobitic>