

TRIM

Meaning: Trim (verb): to cut away irregular or unwanted parts from something to improve its appearance or condition.

1. The gardener decided to trim the overgrown hedges to enhance the beauty of the landscape.
2. Before the performance, the actor took a moment to trim his hair for a more polished appearance.
3. She used scissors to trim the edges of the paper for a clean finish on her art project.
4. The company plans to trim its budget to allocate more funds for research and development.
5. He always likes to trim his beard before important events to look his best.
6. She decided to trim the overgrown hedges in her front yard.
7. After a long day, he enjoyed a trim at the barber shop to freshen up his look.
8. The company plans to trim its budget in response to the declining sales.
9. She added a decorative trim to the edge of the curtains for a polished finish.
10. He used scissors to trim the edges of the paper for a neat presentation.
11. She decided to trim her hair before the big event.
12. The gardener will trim the hedges to keep the garden looking neat.
13. He used scissors to carefully trim the edges of the paper.
14. After reviewing the report, she suggested a few ways to trim unnecessary details.
15. The company aims to trim costs without sacrificing quality.
16. She decided to trim the hedges in her garden for a more polished look.
17. The tailor offered to trim the sleeves of my jacket to give it a better fit.
18. After the haircut, I felt like I had a fresh start with my new trim style.
19. He used scissors to trim the excess paper from the edges of the craft project.
20. The company plans to trim its budget in order to increase profit margins this year.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trim>