

TRIMELLIC

Meaning: Trimellic refers to a chemical compound related to trimellic acid, which is used in various applications, including pharmaceuticals and biodegradable plastics.

1. The chemist was excited to discover the potential applications of trimellic acid in pharmaceuticals.
2. After extensive research, the team concluded that trimellic derivatives could enhance the performance of biodegradable plastics.
3. In the synthesis process, trimellic anhydride played a crucial role in creating the desired compound.
4. The environmental report highlighted the benefits of using trimellic-based materials in reducing carbon footprints.
5. Many researchers are currently investigating the efficacy of trimellic compounds in treating various health conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trimellic>