

TRIMERA

Meaning: Trimer refers to a molecular structure or protein composed of three identical or similar subunits.

1. The scientist discovered a rare trimeric protein that plays a crucial role in cellular communication.
2. In the world of botany, the term trimer refers to a structure composed of three similar units.
3. The researchers were excited to analyze the trimeric complex formed during the experiment.
4. Understanding the function of trimers can lead to significant advancements in medicinal chemistry.
5. The trimeric arrangement of the molecules provided unique properties that enhanced their stability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trimer>