

TRIMORPHISM

Meaning: Trimorphism is the condition of having three distinct forms or phases within a particular structure or system.

1. Trimorphism in mathematics refers to the existence of three distinct forms within a given structure.
2. The concept of trimorphism is essential in understanding the different phases of matter.
3. In the study of crystallography, trimorphism can explain why certain minerals exhibit multiple crystal forms.
4. Researchers have found that the trimorphism of these organic compounds can significantly affect their reactivity.
5. The artist's work reflects a trimorphism of styles, blending realism, abstraction, and surrealism seamlessly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trimorphism>