

TRINK

Meaning: Trink (verb): To sip or consume a beverage, often in a leisurely or social manner.

1. I decided to trink some of the delicious tea before heading out.
2. As the sun began to set, we gathered to trink the last of our drinks together.
3. She asked if I could trink her coffee while she finished her work.
4. The children laughed as they tried to trink from the oversized mugs at the party.
5. He always seemed to trink the most unique beverages at the cafe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trink>