

TRINKLE

Meaning: Trinkle (verb): to produce a light, gentle sound, often resembling the tinkling of small bells or chimes.

1. The delicate sound of the wind chimes began to trinkle as the breeze picked up.
2. Her laughter would trinkle like music, bringing joy to everyone around her.
3. As the sun set, the water in the fountain started to trinkle gently, creating a serene atmosphere.
4. He watched the raindrops trinkle down the window, lost in thought about the day ahead.
5. The small bell on the door trinkled softly as customers entered the quaint little shop.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trinkle>