

TRIOLEIN

Meaning: Triolein is a triglyceride composed of glycerol and three oleic acid molecules, commonly found in fats and oils, and significant in biochemical processes and unsaturated fatty acid content.

1. Trioleins are often studied for their role in various biochemical processes.
2. The presence of triolein in the sample indicated a high level of unsaturated fatty acids.
3. Researchers found that triolein can influence the absorption of certain nutrients in the gut.
4. In food science, triolein is valued for its emulsifying properties in various products.
5. The metabolism of triolein can vary significantly among different animal species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/triolein>