

TRIPALMITIN

Meaning: Tripalmitin is a triglyceride formed by the esterification of glycerol with three molecules of palmitic acid.

1. Tripalmitin is a triglyceride composed of three palmitic acid molecules.
2. Researchers are investigating the role of tripalmitin in lipid metabolism.
3. In the laboratory, tripalmitin can be used to study the absorption of fats in the intestine.
4. The presence of tripalmitin in certain foods contributes to their caloric density.
5. Tripalmitin has been shown to affect insulin sensitivity in various studies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tripalmitin>