

TRIPLEX

Meaning: Triplex: a building divided into three separate living units, often used for residential purposes or rental income.

1. The architect designed a modern triplex that maximized space and natural light.
2. Investing in a triplex can provide multiple streams of rental income for homeowners.
3. She admired the elegant triplex with its three distinct living areas and shared courtyard.
4. After months of searching, they finally found a triplex in a vibrant neighborhood close to their work.
5. The triplex had been renovated recently, making it a desirable option for young families.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/triplex>