

TRIPPLICATE

Meaning: Triplicate (noun): a set of three identical copies or reproductions of a document or item.

1. Please submit your application in triplicate to ensure that all copies are properly reviewed.
2. The artist created a triplicate of the painting, each one capturing a different season.
3. In order to comply with the regulations, we must file the report in triplicate by the deadline.
4. The contract requires signatures from all parties in triplicate to validate the agreement.
5. She carefully prepared the triplicate forms, each one meticulously filled out to avoid any errors.
6. Please submit the triplicate of your application forms for processing.
7. The accountant asked for a triplicate of the invoice to ensure accurate record-keeping.
8. In order to finalize the contract, we need to sign it in triplicate.
9. The scientist recorded the experiment's results in triplicate to validate the findings.
10. She made a triplicate copy of the important documents for safekeeping.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/triplicate>