TRISTICHOUS

Meaning: Tristicous refers to a plant or species that thrives in wet, marshy environments and possesses unique adaptations for survival in such conditions.

1. The tristicous plant thrives in wet, marshy conditions where few other species can survive.
2. In the botanist's report, the tristicous characteristics of the specimen were noted for their unique adaptations.
3. As we studied the tristicous flora, we were amazed by the intricate patterns of their leaf structures.
4. The tristicous variety of algae forms a vibrant green carpet on the surface of the pond.
5. During the field trip, the students learned to identify tristicous species by their distinctive growth habits.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tristichous