

TRITURATION

Meaning: Trituration is the process of grinding or mixing substances, often used in homeopathy to create potentized remedies by ensuring thorough integration of active ingredients.

1. Trituration is a common technique used in homeopathy to create potentized remedies.
2. The pharmacist demonstrated the process of trituration to ensure the active ingredients were thoroughly mixed.
3. In the laboratory, trituration was employed to grind the substances into a fine powder for better absorption.
4. For optimal results, the trituration should be performed slowly and meticulously to achieve the desired consistency.
5. Understanding the principles of trituration can greatly enhance the effectiveness of medicinal preparations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trituration>