

TRIUMPH

Meaning: Triumph: a great victory or achievement, especially one that is the result of overcoming challenges or difficulties.

1. Winning the championship felt like a personal triumph after years of hard work.
2. Her triumph over adversity inspired everyone around her to keep pushing forward.
3. The team celebrated their triumph with a parade through the city streets.
4. He considered his promotion a triumph of perseverance and dedication.
5. The scientist's groundbreaking discovery marked a significant triumph in her field.
6. Her victory in the marathon was a personal triumph that she had been working towards for years.
7. The team celebrated their triumph with a grand parade through the city streets.
8. After months of hard work and dedication, landing the job felt like a major triumph for him.
9. The artist's latest exhibition was a triumph of creativity and imagination, captivating everyone who attended.
10. Winning the championship was not just a triumph for the players, but for the entire community that supported them.
11. The team celebrated their triumph after a hard-fought championship victory.
12. Her triumph over adversity inspired many others to pursue their dreams.
13. The scientist's breakthrough was a significant triumph for the entire research community.
14. He felt a sense of triumph as he crossed the finish line first in the marathon.
15. Winning the award was a personal triumph that validated years of dedication and effort.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/triumph>