

TRIUMPHAL

Meaning: Triumphant: relating to or celebrating a victory or achievement, often marked by public display or celebration.

1. The victorious athlete made a triumphal return to his hometown, greeted by cheering crowds.
2. The triumphal arch stood majestically at the entrance of the city, commemorating a historic victory.
3. After years of hard work, she finally experienced a triumphal moment when she received the prestigious award.
4. The band played a triumphal anthem as the parade celebrated the team's championship win.
5. His speech was filled with triumphal rhetoric, celebrating the achievements of their community.
6. The crowd erupted in cheers as the team made their triumphal return after winning the championship.
7. Her triumphal speech inspired the audience and left a lasting impression on everyone present.
8. The arch, built in a triumphal style, commemorated the victory of the ancient warriors.
9. He rode through the city on horseback in a triumphal parade, waving to the adoring fans.
10. The artist's latest exhibition is a triumphal celebration of culture and resilience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/triumphal>