

TRIVIALISM

Meaning: Trivialism is the tendency to focus on insignificant or superficial details, often resulting in a lack of substantive discussion or meaningful engagement.

1. Trivialism often leads to a lack of meaningful discourse in academic discussions.
2. In our quest for knowledge, we must be cautious not to fall into the trap of trivialism.
3. The documentary highlighted how trivialism can undermine serious social issues.
4. Critics argue that trivialism dilutes the cultural significance of profound art.
5. She dismissed his concerns as mere trivialism, failing to see their deeper implications.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trivialism>