

TROMP

Meaning: TROMP (verb): To walk heavily or noisily, often with a firm or determined step.

1. She managed to tromp through the muddy field without getting her shoes stuck.
2. The children tromped happily through the autumn leaves, creating a delightful crunching sound.
3. He tromped up the stairs, eager to finally reach the rooftop terrace.
4. As the rain fell harder, they tromped back to the car, soaked but laughing.
5. With each heavy step, she could feel the weight of her worries tromping along beside her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tromp>