

TROOPMEAL

Meaning: Troopmeal: a communal meal provided for a group, often during events or gatherings, featuring a variety of dishes.

1. The troopmeal provided by the camp was surprisingly delicious and filling.
2. During the annual gathering, everyone looked forward to the troopmeal that showcased local delicacies.
3. The leaders organized a troopmeal as a way to foster camaraderie among the new recruits.
4. After a long day of exercises, the refreshing troopmeal revitalized the weary soldiers.
5. They shared stories around the troopmeal, creating lasting memories of their time together.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/troopmeal>