

TROPICAL

Meaning: Tropical refers to regions of the Earth located near the equator characterized by warm temperatures and high humidity, often associated with lush vegetation and diverse ecosystems.

1. The tropical rainforests are home to an incredible diversity of wildlife.
2. We spent our vacation lounging on the sandy beaches of a tropical island.
3. The tropical climate in that region supports vibrant agriculture and lush vegetation.
4. Her favorite fruits, like mangoes and pineapples, are typical of tropical regions.
5. Tropical storms can develop rapidly and pose significant risks to coastal areas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tropical>