

TROUBADOUR

Meaning: A troubadour is a traveling poet and musician from medieval Europe who composes and performs lyrical songs, often about love and adventure.

1. The troubadour sang heartfelt verses under the stars, captivating the audience with his soulful melodies.
2. In medieval Europe, a troubadour often traveled from town to town, sharing stories of love and adventure.
3. Her dream was to become a troubadour, roaming the countryside with a lute in hand and songs in her heart.
4. The troubadour's lyrics, filled with longing and passion, echoed through the castle halls and enchanted all who listened.
5. Inspired by the great troubadours of history, he took to the streets to spread joy through his music.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/troubadour>