

TROVER

Meaning: TROVER (noun): A person who searches for and discovers valuable or historical items, often through excavation or exploration.

1. The experienced trover carefully examined the old estate for hidden treasures.
2. As a dedicated trover, she had a keen eye for historical artifacts buried beneath the soil.
3. His reputation as a skilled trover attracted many amateur treasure hunters to join his expeditions.
4. After years of searching, the trover finally uncovered a rare coin that changed the course of his research.
5. The trover shared stories of his adventures, inspiring others to explore the world around them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trover>