

TRUAND

Meaning: Truand (noun): A person who avoids work or responsibility, often leading a disreputable or idle lifestyle.

1. The truand wandered the streets, avoiding responsibility at every turn.
2. In a society that values hard work, the truand was often looked down upon.
3. His carefree attitude made him a charming truand, effortlessly winning friends.
4. Despite his reputation as a truand, he had a surprisingly kind heart.
5. The truand's stories of adventure captivated the children in the village.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/truand>