

TRUCEBREAKER

Meaning: A trucebreaker is a person who violates or disrupts a peace agreement or ceasefire, often causing conflict or hostilities to resume.

1. The trucebreaker shattered years of peace with a single reckless act.
2. In the midst of fragile negotiations, he was labeled a trucebreaker by both sides.
3. Their efforts to maintain harmony were undermined by a notorious trucebreaker in their ranks.
4. The village had long feared the return of the trucebreaker who once ignited a devastating war.
5. Despite promises of cooperation, she was soon recognized as a trucebreaker, causing widespread distrust.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trucebreaker>